

4th CONGRESS OF INTERNATIONAL LEGAL STUDIES
1st INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH SEMINAR IN LAW on Labour, Technologies, Multinationals and Migrations - "TTMMs"
'Contemporary challenges and expansion of Human Rights in a global democratic order'

UFMG Law School
- November 21-24, 2017 -

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME

- Plenary Sessions -

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME
- Plenary Sessions -
Time	Tuesday - November 21, 2017	Venue
3:30pm 6pm – 9pm	Registration Welcome and Opening Session 'Labour, Technologies, Multinationals and Migrations in Law': Interdisciplinary views and expansion of human rights in the world order Inaugural Lecture	Faculty of Law / CAD-UFMG
Time	Wednesday, November 22, 2017	Venue
08:30 - 10:00	Human rights protection systems and global order: contemporary trends and case law on democracy, labour and social rights	Faculty of Law / CAD-UFMG
10:30 a.m.	The interfaces between international law, critical theory, global governance and transnational corporations
Lunch		TBC
2p.m.	Working Groups (Round 1)	Faculty of Law / CAD-UFMG

Coffee break
5:00p.m	Corporate social responsibility (CRS), sustainability and enforcement of human rights: social and corporate interactions in the contemporary world order	Faculty of Law / CAD-UFMG
7:30 - 9:00pm	Globalization, 'Mondialisation' and transnationalization in Law: treaties, trade and investment agreements and impacts upon labour environment

Time	Thursday, November 23, 2017	Venue
08:30 - 10:00	Global economic development among crises: The new expressions of inequalities, vulnerabilities and precariousness	Faculty of Law / CAD-UFMG
10: 30- 12:30	Labour environment as research object: Domestic and transnational legal practices
Lunch		TBC
2:00 p.m.	Working Groups (Round 2)	Faculty of Law / CAD-UFMG
Coffee break
5p.m.	The new façades of 'Gig Economy', work intermediation platforms and the 'crowdworkers': criticalities and challenges in new technological landscapes	Faculty of Law / CAD-UFMG
7- 9 pm	Gig Economy, 4.0 Industry and the collective domain: new anti-union conducts, discrimination and new forms of organization of workers

Time	Friday, November 24, 2017	Venue
8:30 to 10 a.m	Migration and fight against transnational corruption: views from international law, labour and multinationals	Faculty of Law / CAD-UFMG
10:30 a.m	Migrant Worker and the nation state: between transnational legal system and normative constraints on migration and labour standards
Lunch
2 p.m.	Specialized Thematic Meetings – ‘Reuniões Especializadas Temáticas’ (RETs): collaborative research strategies among Brazilian CNPq Research Networks and beyond RENAPEDTS, Research Group on Labour and Resistance, Research Group on Critical International Law; GDIP International Private Law; Brazilian Research Forum on Intellectual Property and Innovation, Latin American Transitional Justice Network; UK-Brazil Inclusionary Practices Project (KLS-UFMG)	Faculty of Law / CAD-UFMG
Coffee break		TBC
5p.m. 19:30 - 21:00	Deconstruction and deregulation of labour market in Brazilian and comparative perspectives: international instruments, comparative law and conflict readings Closing Conference: Reworking the resistance and the ethos of human rights and democracy: possible avenues and institutional reshaping	Fac. Law UFMG / CAD-UFMG

Organization and Sponsorship:

WORKING GROUPS (Call for Papers)

- WG 1 - Labour Law, trade unions and democracy in the crises of the Welfare State.
- WG 2 - Transnational corporations, corporate social responsibility (CSR): views from constitutional and international law.
- WG 3 - Migrations and human rights in critical theory, legal philosophy and international law.
- WG 4 - Fundamental rights of workers: critical views from constitutional perspective, International Labour Law Organization practice and non-governmental organizations.
- WG 5 - Law, constitutionalism, Transitional Justice and human rights protection systems in domestic and global orders.
- WG 6 - Technologies, individual/collective labour law and internet law: Gig Economy, 4.0 Industry and regulatory functions of Law.
- WG 7 - Jurisdiction, access to justice, international legal cooperation, internet conflicts and new technologies.
- WG 8 - Human rights protection systems in the global order and interfaces with labour, enterprises and migrations.
- WG 9 - Social movements and citizenship in complex societies: participation and responsiveness in public policies within local and global contexts.
- WG 10 - Labour Law and Critical Social Theory: methodological frameworks and narratives.
- WG 11 - Comparative law, private international law and cultural studies in contemporary world order.
- WG 12 - New migration waves and migrant profiles: public policies offenses between constitutional and international law.
- WG 13 - New technologies, best practices and inputs to the efficiency of public policies of protection of rights.
- WG 14 - Labour, Technology, Multinationals, Migrations: between Marxist readings and the critique to Law.
- WG 15 - Ethics of hospitality, migration and the alien: historical, legal philosophical and international readings.
- WG 16 - Inclusionary Practices, Law and Regulation in Europe and Latin America: the interfaces of the debate on inclusion and human rights.
- WG 17 - Gender, race, sexuality, LGBTs and vulnerabilities: reshaping theories in the domains of labour, technologies, multinationals and migrations.
- WG 18 - Slave labour, human trafficking and new forms of exploitation of the human beings at the crossroads of State and Globalization.
- WG 19 - Human rights and the environment: prevention and repression of wrongful acts committed by transnational corporations, jurisdictional aspects and responsibilities.
- WG 20 - Global capitalism and transnational corporations: regulatory profiles of labour law and strategies to strengthening trade union actions.
- WG 21 - Labour, Technology, Multinationals and Migration: intersectionality between Law, Art and Literature.
- WG 22 (Special) - Old and new Italian migrations in Brazil and Minas Gerais. History, memories, rights, anarchism, traditions, everyday life, visibilities and invisibilities, influence, impacts, adaptations, labour, profiles, demographics, intersections, statistics, development, innovation.